Freelancing Websites: How it works

Client Posts Jobs:

The client posts job listings or projects on the freelance platform, specifying the requirements, scope of work, and budget. Freelancers interested in the job can review the details and submit proposals or bids to be considered for the project.

Common on: Upwork, Freelancer, Mostaql

Freelancer Offers Specific Services:

Freelancers offer specific services or "gigs" on the platform. They create detailed listings describing the services they provide, along with the pricing and turnaround time. Clients can browse through these listings and directly hire the freelancer for the desired service.

Common on: Khamsat, Kwork

How to Create an Outstanding Gig

1. Choose the Right Gig Title

- ✓ Be clear, specific, and searchable.
- ✓ Use keywords that buyers would type.
- ✓ Keep it short but informative.

Example:

“I will design a professional modern logo for your business”

“I will translate English to Arabic manually and accurately”

2. Write a Compelling Gig Description

- ✓ Start with a hook (attention-grabbing line).
- ✓ Clearly explain what you offer, how you do it, and what the buyer will get.
- ✓ Use bullet points for clarity.
- ✓ Address why you’re the right person for the task.

Structure:

- 1.Introduction
- 2.Service details
- 3.Why choose me
- 4.Call to action (e.g., “Feel free to contact me before ordering”)

3. Set Competitive Pricing

- ✓ Start with affordable prices if you're new.
 - ✓ Use Fiverr's three-tier pricing (Basic / Standard / Premium) to offer options.
 - ✓ Be honest about delivery times and extras.
- Tip: Don't underprice your work too much. Focus on value.

4. Add High-Quality Images and Videos

- ✓ Use professional and relevant images (real samples, mockups, clean visuals).
 - ✓ Create an intro video explaining your gig — it boosts conversions.
- Tip: Add before/after examples or past work to build trust.

5. Use the Right Tags and Categories

- ✓ Tags help your gig get discovered in searches.
 - ✓ Choose accurate keywords.
- Example Tags: logo design, brand identity, minimalist logo

6. Optimize and Improve Constantly

- ✓ Analyze what's working (clicks, impressions, orders).
- ✓ Update your gig regularly based on trends or client feedback.
- ✓ Respond quickly to messages and maintain great ratings.

Common Mistakes Beginners Make When Dealing with Clients

2. Mistakes When Dealing with Clients

Slow or No Communication

Being Too Formal or Too Casual

Not Clarifying the Project Scope

Ignoring Client Feedback

Missing Deadlines

Tips to Get Your First Client

Start with a Strong Profile

Apply to Small Jobs First

Be Responsive

Deliver Quality & Ask for Reviews

1. Start with a Strong Profile

Use a professional profile photo

Write a clear, client-focused bio

Highlight your skills, tools, and relevant experience

Add a portfolio or examples (even if personal/sample projects)

2. Apply to Small Jobs First

Focus on low-budget
or entry-level gigs to build reputation

These are easier to win and help you gain
experience

Customize each proposal — don't
copy-paste

3. Be Responsive

4. Deliver Quality & Ask for Reviews

Go the extra mile on your first few jobs

Submit your work on time and error-free

Politely ask clients to leave a positive review
if they're happy

What You Need to Start Freelancing

- Profile photo
- Skill(s) learned
- Portfolio samples
- Email & payment method
- Internet & device
- Created account on a platform

Tips to avoid Frauds

Use reputable freelancing platforms that offer payment protection and escrow services.

Agree on clear payment terms and milestones before starting a project.

Request upfront deposits or milestone payments to ensure client commitment.

Be cautious of clients who ask for sensitive financial information or propose payment methods outside the platform

Research the client or company offering the job to ensure their legitimacy.

Be cautious of job postings with unrealistic promises, extremely high pay rates, or poor grammar and spelling.

Never pay fees upfront or share sensitive information like bank details or social security numbers.

Maintain clear communication and document all project details, milestones, and approvals.

Use contracts or agreements that outline the scope of work, payment terms, and dispute resolution procedures.

Keep track of all project-related communication and evidence to support your case in case of a dispute.
